If you cannot attend the Meeting in person, please complete and return the enclosed form of proxy (“Proxy”) following the instructions therein.

The enclosed Proxy is being solicited by the management of the Corporation and the costs of this solicitation will be borne by the Corporation. The solicitation will be conducted primarily by mail but proxies may also be solicited personally by officers, employees or agents of the Corporation, without additional compensation. The Corporation shall, upon request, reimburse brokers and other persons holding Shares of the Corporation on their behalf or on behalf of nominees, for reasonable costs incurred in sending the proxy documents to Shareholders.

VOTING INFORMATION

Who can vote?

You have the right to vote if you owned Shares of the Corporation on May 4, 2023 (the “Record Date”). Each Share you own entitles you to one vote. Pursuant to the by-laws of the Corporation, business may be transacted at the Meeting if not less than two persons are present at the Meeting, each being a Shareholder entitled to vote thereat or a duly appointed proxy or representative representing not less than 5% of the outstanding Shares carrying voting rights at the Meeting.

How to vote?

You can vote in person or by proxy. Voting by proxy means you are giving someone else the authority to attend the Meeting and vote your Shares for you (called your proxyholder).

REGISTERED SHAREHOLDERS

You are a “Registered Shareholder” if your Shares are registered in your name. This means that your name appears in the Shareholders’ register maintained by our transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services Inc. (“Computershare”). You will have received a Proxy from Computershare. Complete, sign and email your scanned Proxy to the address indicated on the form, mail it in the postage prepaid envelope or fax it to the number indicated on the form.

NON-REGISTERED SHAREHOLDERS

You are a “Non Registered (or Beneficial) Shareholder” if your shares are held in the name of an intermediary (securities broker, trustee or other financial institution). You will have received a request for voting instructions from your broker. Follow the instructions on your voting instruction form to vote by telephone, e-mail or fax, or complete, sign and mail the voting instruction form in the postage prepaid envelope provided. For more information, including how to vote at the Meeting, see the information below under the heading “Advice to Non Registered Shareholders” of this Circular.

What if I complete the Proxy enclosed with this Circular?

The persons named in the enclosed Proxy are directors and officers of the Corporation. When you vote by Proxy, you are giving them the authority to vote your Shares for you according to your instructions.

Can I appoint someone else to vote my Shares?

Yes. You can also appoint someone else to be your proxyholder. This person does not need to be a Shareholder. Strike out the names that are printed on the Proxy and print the name of the person you are appointing as your proxyholder in the space provided. Complete your voting instructions, sign and date the Proxy. Make sure the person you are appointing is aware that he or she has been appointed and attends the Meeting on your behalf. Your proxyholder should see a representative of Computershare when he or she arrives at the Meeting.

What do I do with my completed Proxy?

To be effective, we must receive your completed Proxy no later two full business days before the Meeting, or any adjournment or adjournments thereof, as applicable. You may also bring the Proxy to the Meeting and deliver it to the chairman of the Meeting prior to the commencement of the Meeting. The Proxy shall be in writing and executed by the Shareholder or such Shareholder's attorney authorized in writing, or if such Shareholder is a corporation, under its corporate seal or by a duly authorized officer or attorney, as applicable. Late Proxies may be accepted or rejected at the discretion of the chairman of the Meeting, without notice.

How will my Shares be voted if I give my Proxy?

With respect to matters specified in the Proxy, if no voting instructions are provided, the nominees named in the accompanying Proxy will vote Shares represented by the Proxy FOR the approval of such matters.

The nominee named in your Proxy will vote or withhold from voting in accordance with your instructions on any ballot that may be called for. The Proxy will confer discretionary authority on the nominee with respect to matters identified in the Proxy for which a choice is not specified and any other matter that may properly come before the Meeting or any postponement or adjournment thereof, whether or not the matter is routine and whether or not the matter is contested.

Management does not know and cannot foresee at the present time any amendments or new points to be brought before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. If such amendments or new points were to be properly brought before the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, the persons named in the enclosed Proxy will vote on such matters in the way they consider advisable.

How can I revoke my Proxy?

If you change your mind and wish to revoke your Proxy, prepare a written statement to this effect. The statement must be signed by you or your attorney as authorized in writing or, if the Shareholder is a corporation, under its corporate seal or by an officer or attorney of the corporation duly authorized. This statement must be delivered to Computershare as mentioned above, at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, at which the Proxy is to be used, or with the chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof, and upon either of such deposits the Proxy is revoked. You may also revoke a previously submitted Proxy by signing and submitting an instrument of proxy bearing a later date.

Where can I access the Financial Materials of the Corporation?

Financial statements and management discussion and analysis (MD&A) of the Corporation are available electronically online on the Corporation's SEDAR profile at www.sedar.com or on the Corporation's website at www.pascoresources.com. Delivery in electronic format, rather than paper, reduces costs to the Corporation and benefits the environment.

How may I ask questions if I attend the Meeting virtually?

If a Shareholder has a question about one of the items to be voted on by the Shareholders at the Meeting, such question may be submitted in advance of the Meeting by emailing ndion@pascoresources.com and by providing the control number, as shown on the Proxy.

Questions for the Meeting may also be submitted during the Meeting virtually by submitting such question in the field provided in the Q&A box at or before the time the matters are presented before the Meeting for consideration. Questions relating to any items to be voted on by the Shareholders at the Meeting will be answered before the voting is closed.

Following adjournment of the formal business of the Meeting, the Corporation will hold a live Q&A session to address appropriate general questions from Shareholders regarding the Corporation. Only Shareholders and duly appointed proxyholders may submit questions at the Meeting. Guests will not be able to submit questions, vote or otherwise participate at the Meeting; however, they will be able to join the meeting as a guest. Shareholders voting by proxy in advance of the Meeting are welcome to join the Meeting as guests.

The chair of the Meeting reserves the right to edit questions or to reject questions he deems inappropriate. To ensure the Meeting is conducted in a manner that is fair to all Shareholders, the chair of the Meeting may exercise broad discretion with respect to, for example, the order in which questions are asked and the amount of time devoted to any one question. The chair of the Meeting may also limit the number of questions per Shareholder in order to ensure that as many Shareholders as possible will have the opportunity to ask questions.

In the event of technical malfunction or other significant problem that disrupts the Meeting, the chair of the Meeting may adjourn, recess, or expedite the Meeting, or take such other action that the chair determines is appropriate considering the circumstances.

Should you have any difficulties relating to the virtual Meeting, you can contact ndion@pascoresources.com.

Who counts the votes?

The Corporation's transfer agent, Computershare, counts and tabulates the votes. This is done independently of the Corporation to preserve the confidentiality of individual Shareholder votes. Proxies are referred to the Corporation only in cases where a Shareholder clearly intends to communicate with Management or when it is necessary to do so to meet the requirements of applicable law. Advice to Non Registered Shareholders

The information set forth in this section is of significant importance to many Shareholders, as a substantial number of Shareholders do not hold Shares in their own name. Shareholders who hold their Shares through their brokers, intermediaries, trustees or other persons, or who otherwise do not hold their Shares in their own name (referred to herein as “Beneficial Shareholders”) should note that only proxies deposited by Shareholders who appear on the records maintained by Computershare as registered holders of Shares will be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting.

If Shares are listed in an account statement provided to a Shareholder by a broker, those Shares will, in all likelihood, not be registered in the Shareholder’s name. Such Shares will more likely be registered under the name of the Shareholder’s broker or an agent of that broker. In Canada, the vast majority of such Shares are registered under the name of CDS & Co. (the registration name for CDS Clearing and Depository Services Inc., which acts as nominee for many Canadian brokerage firms). Shares held by brokers (or their agents or nominees) on behalf of a broker’s client can only be voted at the direction of the Beneficial Shareholder. Without specific instructions, brokers and their agents and nominees are prohibited from voting Shares for the broker’s clients. Therefore, each Beneficial Shareholder should ensure that voting instructions are communicated to the appropriate person well in advance of the Meeting.

Regulation 54-101 respecting Communication with Beneficial Owner of Reporting Issuers (“Regulation 54-101”) requires brokers and other intermediaries to seek voting instructions from Beneficial Shareholders in advance of Shareholders’ meetings. The various brokers and other intermediaries have their own mailing procedures and provide their own return instructions to clients, which should be carefully followed by Beneficial Shareholders in order to ensure that their Shares are voted at the Meeting. The form of proxy supplied to a Beneficial Shareholder by its broker (or the agent of the broker) is substantially similar to the Proxy provided directly to registered Shareholders by the Corporation. However, its purpose is limited to instructing the Registered Shareholder (i.e., the broker or agent of the broker) how to vote on behalf of the Beneficial Shareholder.

This Circular and accompanying materials are being sent to both Registered Shareholders and Beneficial Shareholders. Beneficial Shareholders fall into two categories – those who object to their identity being known to the issuers of securities which they own (“Objecting Beneficial Owners” or “OBO’s”) and those who do not object to their identity being made known to the issuers of the securities they own (“Non-Objecting Beneficial Owners” or “NOBO’s”).

Subject to the provision of Regulation 54-101, issuers may request and obtain a list of their NOBO’s from intermediaries via their transfer agents. If you are a Beneficial Shareholder, and the Corporation or its agent has sent these materials directly to you, your name, address and information about your holdings of Shares have been obtained in accordance with applicable securities regulatory requirements from the intermediary holding the Shares on your behalf. By choosing to send these materials to you directly, the Corporation (and not the intermediary holding on your behalf) has assumed responsibility for delivering these materials to you and executing your proper voting instructions. Please return your voting instructions as specified in the request for voting instructions.

Beneficial Shareholders who are OBOs should contact and carefully follow the instructions of their broker or intermediary in order to ensure that their Shares are voted at the Meeting. Most intermediaries delegate responsibility for obtaining instructions from clients to Broadridge in the United States and in Canada. Broadridge will mail a voting instruction form (“VIF”) in lieu of the Proxy provided by the Corporation. The VIF will name the same persons as the Corporation’s Proxy to represent your Shares at the Meeting. You have the right to appoint a person (who needs not be a Shareholder of the Corporation) other than any of the persons designated in the VIF to represent your Shares at the Meeting. To exercise this right, you should insert the name of your desired representative (which may be yourself) in the blank space provided in the VIF. The completed VIF must then be returned to Broadridge by mail or facsimile or given to Broadridge by phone or over the internet, in accordance with Broadridge’s instructions. Broadridge then tabulates the results of all instructions received and provides appropriate instructions respecting the voting of Shares to be represented at the Meeting and the appointment of any Shareholder’s representative. If you receive a VIF from Broadridge, the VIF must be returned to Broadridge, in accordance with its instructions, well in advance of the Meeting in order to have your Shares voted at the Meeting, or to have an alternative representative duly appointed to attend and to vote your Shares at the Meeting.

A Beneficial Shareholder may attend the Meeting as proxyholder for Shares registered in the name of an intermediary by entering his or her own name in the blank space on the Proxy or VIF and returning it to the broker (or that broker's agent) in accordance with the broker's instructions (or the agent's instructions).

All references to Shareholders in the Notice of Meeting, Circular and the accompanying Proxy are to Registered Shareholders of the Corporation as set forth on the list of Registered Shareholders of the Corporation as maintained by the registrar and transfer agent of the Corporation, Computershare, unless specifically stated otherwise.

INTEREST OF CERTAIN PERSONS AND COMPANIES IN MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON

Except as described herein and with regards to the executive compensation of directors and officers, Management is not aware of any material interest, direct or indirect, by way of beneficial ownership of securities or otherwise, in any matter to be acted upon at the Meeting, of any director or executive officer of the Corporation who has held that position at any time since the beginning of the Corporation's last financial year, or of any proposed nominee for election as director of the Corporation or any associate or affiliate of any of the foregoing.

The objective of the Plan is to provide for and encourage ownership of Shares by its directors, officers, key employees and consultants and those of any subsidiary companies so that such persons may increase their stake in the Corporation and benefit from increases in the value of the Shares. The Plan is designed to be competitive with the benefit programs of other companies in the industry. Management believes that the Plan is a significant incentive for the directors, officers, key employees and consultants to continue and to increase their efforts in the Corporation’s operations to the mutual benefit of both the Corporation and such individuals.

Oversight and Description of Director and Named Executive Compensation

The Board has not yet adopted a formal executive compensation plan. The executive compensation program of the Corporation for the last financial year can be described as follows.

Compensation Program Objectives

The objectives of the Corporation's executive compensation program are as follows:

- to attract, retain and motivate talented executives who create and sustain the Corporation's continued success;
- to align the interests of the Corporation's executives with the interests of the Corporation's Shareholders; and
- to provide total compensation to executives that is competitive with that paid by other companies of comparable size engaged in similar business in appropriate regions.

Overall, the executive compensation program aims to design executive compensation packages that meet executive compensation packages for executives with similar talents, qualifications and responsibilities at companies with similar financial, operating and industrial characteristics.

Purpose of the Compensation Program

The Corporation's executive compensation program has been designed to reward executives for reinforcing the Corporation's business objectives and values, and for their individual performances.

Elements of Compensation Program

The executive compensation program consists of a combination of base salary, performance bonus and stock options.

Similar to the executive compensation program, directors are also eligible to receive, in addition to a fixed annual compensation, bonuses and stock options as part of their overall compensation plan. Bonuses and the level of stock option awards are determined on a discretionary basis by the Board.

During the financial year ended December 31, 2022, the base annual compensation of non executive directors was increased to ensure that board and committee member contributions are appropriately remunerated, following a recommendation of the Corporation's Compensation Committee. This recommendation was based on a report entitled "Board & Executive Compensation in the Mining Industry", prepared by the Bedford Consulting Group Inc., which showed that the remuneration of the Corporation's independent directors was substantially below market data and did not adequately take into account directorship, chair or committee roles and membership.

Purpose of Each Element of the Executive Compensation Program

The base salary of a NEO is intended to attract and retain executives by providing a reasonable amount of non-contingent remuneration.

In addition to a fixed base salary, each NEO is eligible to receive a bonus meant to motivate the NEO and is determined on a case by case basis. Awards under this plan are made by way of cash payments only, which payment are made at the end of the financial year. The Corporation does not establish fixed objectives used to determine bonuses paid out to executives.

Stock options are generally awarded to NEO on an annual basis. The granting of stock options upon hire aligns NEO's rewards with an increase in shareholder value over the long term. The use of stock options encourages and rewards performance by aligning an increase in each NEO's compensation with increases in the Corporation's performance and in the value of the Shareholders' investments.

Determination of the Amount of Each Element of the Executive Compensation Program

Intervention of the Board of Directors

Compensation of the NEOs of the Corporation, other than the CEO, is reviewed annually by the CEO, who makes recommendations to the Board. The Board reviews the recommendations of the CEO and approves the compensation of the NEOs based on the recommendations of the CEO. Compensation of the CEO and members of the Board is reviewed annually by the Board.

Base Salary

The base salary review of each NEO takes into consideration the current competitive market conditions, experience, performance, and the particular skills of the NEO. Base salary is not evaluated against a formal "peer group". The Board relies on the general experience of its members in setting base salary amounts.

Performance Bonuses

Annual bonuses granted to NEOs are determined on a case by case basis and may be awarded at the sole discretion of the Board for individual achievements, contributions or efforts that the Board has determined can reasonably be expected to have a positive impact on shareholder value. The factors considered in assessing the bonus amounts include, but are not limited to, the position of the NEO and expense control.

Stock Options

The Corporation's Plan, under which stock options are granted to directors, officers, employees and consultants as an incentive to serve the Corporation in attaining its goal of improved shareholder value. The Board determines which NEOs (and other persons) are entitled to participate in the Plan, determines the number of options granted to such individuals, determines the date on which each option is granted and the corresponding exercise price. For further information regarding the Plan refer to the section "Stock Option Plan" above.

The Board makes these determinations subject to the provisions of the Plan and, where applicable, the policies of the Exchange.

Link to Overall Compensation Objectives

Each element of the executive compensation program has been designed to meet one or more objectives of the overall program.

The fixed base salary of each NEO, combined with the granting of stock options and bonus, has been designed to provide total compensation which the Board believes is competitive.

External Compensation Consultants

During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2021 and 2022, the Corporation did not retain the services of an executive compensation consultant to assist the Board in determining the compensation for any of the Corporation's NEOs.

Compensation Risk Management

The Board has not proceeded to an evaluation of the implications of the risks associated with the Corporation's compensation policies and practices. The Corporation has not adopted a policy forbidding directors or officers from purchasing financial instruments that are designed to hedge or offset a decrease in market value of the Corporation's securities granted as compensation or held, directly or indirectly, by directors or officers. To the knowledge of the Corporation, none of the NEOs or directors purchased such financial instruments during the financial year ended December 31, 2022.

Pension Plan Benefits

The Corporation does not have a pension plan that provides for payments or benefits to the NEOs, nor to the directors at, following, or in connection with retirement.

Employment, Consulting and Management Agreements

There was no employment contracts or other agreements in place during the last completed financial year providing for payment in case of termination (whether voluntary, involuntary or constructive), resignation, retirement, a change in control of the Corporation or a change in an NEO's responsibilities. There were also no employment contract or other agreement in place under which compensation was provided or is payable in respect of services provided to the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries that were performed by a director or NEO, or performed by any other party but are services typically provided by a director or a NEO.

Liability insurance

The directors and officers are covered by liability insurance. The Corporation has a Directors' and Officers' Liability and Corporation Reimbursement Insurance policy that provides coverage of up to $5,000,000 per claim and insurance period, along with an additional $5,000,000 "side a" liability insurance for directors and officers for a total of $10,000,000, for which it paid an annual premium of $37,490 for the financial year ended December 31, 2022. The policy has a $25,000 deductible that the Corporation has undertaken to cover in the event of a claim.

MANAGEMENT CONTRACTS

No management functions of the Corporation or a subsidiary of the Corporation are performed to any substantial degree by any person or company other than the directors and executive officers of the Corporation or a subsidiary of the Corporation.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The Corporation believes in the importance of a strong Board of Directors and sound corporate governance policies and practices to direct and manage its business affairs. Good corporate governance is essential to retaining the trust of our Shareholders and attracting the right people to the organization.

The following discussion outlines some of the Corporation's current corporate governance practices, particularly with respect to the matters addressed by Regulation 58-101 respecting Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices ("Regulation 58-101") and Policy Statement 58-201 to Corporate Governance Guidelines, which set out a series of guidelines for effective corporate governance such as the composition and independence of corporate boards, the functions to be performed by boards and their committees, and the effectiveness and education of the Board's members.

1. Board of directors

The Board is currently composed of eight directors. Three of the current directors are not "independent" pursuant to Regulation 58-101. Guy Goulet, Manuel Lizandro Rodriguez Mariateguy Canny and Steve Allen Zadka are not independent since they are members of senior management of the Corporation.

2. Directorships

The other boards of directors to which each of the Corporation's directors is member are indicated under the section of the Circular titled "Matters to be acted upon at the Meeting – Election of Directors".

3. Orientation and Continuing Education

The Board encourages directors to follow appropriate education programs offered by relevant regulatory bodies and provides them with the opportunity to enhance their understanding of the nature and operation of the Corporation. The Corporation offers new directors an orientation which includes the roles, responsibilities and liabilities of directors. Presentations on the Corporation's business are made by Management at each Board meeting.

4. Ethical Business Conduct

Each director of the Corporation, in exercising his powers and discharging his duties, must act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Corporation and further must act in accordance with the law and applicable regulations, policies and standards.

In situation of conflict of interest, a director is required to disclose the nature and extent of any material interest he has in any material contract or proposed contract of the Corporation, as soon as the director becomes aware of the agreement or the intention of the Corporation to consider or enter into the proposed agreement and the director must refrain from voting in respect of any such matter.

5. Nomination of Directors

The corporate governance committee (the "Committee") is responsible for receiving and reviewing the candidates and recommending to the Board the hiring of executive management, or the appointment or election of directors of the Corporation. In addition, the Committee considers and recommends the opportunity to create new functions in the Corporation, analyses the needs of the Board if there are any vacancies and recommends the dismissal of a director or a member of the executive management, if necessary. The Board selects nominees for election to the Board, after having considered the advice and input of the Committee and having carefully reviewed and assessed the professional competencies and skills, personality and other qualities of each proposed candidate, including the time and energy that the candidate can devote to the task, and the contribution that the candidate can bring to the Board's dynamic. The Committee is currently composed of three members: John G. Booth (chairman of the Committee), Keith Philip Brill and Frank Hodgson.

The Committee reviews industry data for similar executives from recruitment agencies.

6. Compensation

The Corporation's compensation program concerning directors and executive management is the responsibility of the Board.

7. Corporate Governance Committee

The Committee has the authority and responsibility of:

- (i) annually reviewing the mandates of the Board and its committees and recommending to the Board such amendments to those mandates as the Corporate Governance believes are necessary or desirable;
- (ii) annually reviewing the disclosure of corporate governance practices to be included in the Corporation's proxy circular;
- (iii) reviewing at least annually the size and composition of the Board, analyzing the needs of the Board and considering the skills, areas of experience, backgrounds, independence and qualifications of the Board's members to ensure that the Board, as a whole, has a diversity of competencies and experience that support it in carrying out its responsibilities;
- (iv) assessing at least annually the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, the committees of the Board and the contribution of each director regarding his effectiveness and contribution;
- (v) acting as a forum for concerns of individual directors in respect of matters that are not readily or easily discussed in a full Board's meeting, including the performance of management or individual members of management or the performance of the Board or individual members of the Board;

- (vi) determining at the earliest stage possible whether any proposed transaction discussed by the Board is or can be perceived as a related party transaction and, if such is the case, review any such transaction to ensure that it is being proposed and will be carried out with fairness and with the best interest of the Corporation in mind and or, alternatively, recommend that a special committee of disinterested directors be constituted to carry out the negotiations for such transaction and review and reported thereupon to the Board.

8. Board Diversity

The Board strongly believes in the benefits of a diverse Board, which include accessing a broader pool of qualified candidates and different perspectives, experiences and ideas which enhance decision making and provide the opportunity for innovation. Accordingly, consideration of the number of women, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities and members of visible minorities who are directors, along with consideration of other diversity criteria, are important components of the selection process for nominees. When recommending nominees to the Board, the Corporate Governance Committee will develop and recommend strategies for identifying and attracting diverse candidates.

The Board is committed to diversity; however, it has not established targets nor adopted a formal written policy with respect to diversity among directors as the Board believes that its criteria for recommending future nominees takes into account the Corporation's overall objectives of increasing diversity while also ensuring that the Board possesses the necessary skills and experience to fulfill its responsibilities.

As of the date hereof, two of the Corporation's eight Directors (25%) identify as visible minorities. None are women, and none self-identify as a person with disabilities or as an Aboriginal person.

The Corporation values maintaining a balance between, on one hand, the institutional experience from the members of its board and executive team and, on the other hand, the need for renewal and new perspectives and skills. In light of the foregoing, the Corporation has not adopted imposed age limits or term limits for the Board as it feels such limits may be arbitrary and may cause the loss of experience and expertise.

9. Executive Diversity

The Corporation employs a mix of formal and informal policies and practices aimed at promoting a diverse workforce. The Corporation also focuses on the development and advancement of women, along with consideration of other diverse individuals, as an integral part of the senior management team, which includes both executive officers and senior positions reporting directly to executive officers. The Corporation considers many factors, including necessary skills and experience required when recruiting and hiring senior management. Diversity criteria, including level of representation of women in senior management, is also considered during recruitment and hiring.

While there are currently no targets nor formal written policy with respect to diversity in executive officer positions, the Corporation recognizes that in order to achieve a representative balance in senior management it must develop strategies for identifying and attracting candidates with diversities for recruitment. Such strategies include engaging the services of external advisors where necessary to help identify future candidates who possess the necessary skills and experience as well as developing its internal talent to ensure that where possible, there will be highly qualified persons within the Corporation available to fill vacancies.

As of the date hereof, four out of the 12 members of senior management (33%) identify as visible minorities. None are women, and none self-identify as a person with disabilities or as an Aboriginal person. As part of the Corporate Governance Committee's assessment, it will consider the level of diversity, including gender diversity, visible minorities, persons with disabilities and Aboriginal persons, in the senior management team. The commitment to diversity, as well as its promotion, also applies to the Corporation's recruitment, hiring and advancement practices in respect of all of its employees.

10. Assessments
